

Filing a Comment, Objection, or Letter of Support in an Open Docket

You can file a comment, objection, or letter of support in a docket using the Iowa Utilities Commission's (IUC) Open Docket Comment Form directly in the electronic filing system (EFS) at efs.iowa.gov.

You may also file written comments by the following methods:

- Website - Go to iuc.iowa.gov and select "File a Comment or Objection in an Open Docket" from the Quick Links menu options on the homepage.
- Mail - Send your written comments to: Iowa Utilities Commission, 1375 E. Court Ave, Des Moines, IA 50319. Please include the docket number.
- In person at the IUC office.

For online filing, complete the comment form by selecting the specific docket(s) where you wish to file your comments. After you submit your comments, the next steps are:

- You should receive an email confirming your submission. This will be sent to the email address you provided.
- Your form will be sent to IUC Customer Service for review and will be uploaded into EFS.
- Your comments and submitting information will be available to the public and served upon all members of the service list for the particular docket selected. As a reminder, any information submitted is subject to the Iowa Open Records Act and will be available for public viewing and inspection.
- If you have requested to receive notifications, you will be added to the service list for the dockets selected. You will receive notification when your comment is filed, as well as notifications of any future filing in the docket.

Filing in a Docket via EFS

If you would like to submit additional documents or information into the docket, you can submit a filing into EFS.

Go to efs.iowa.gov and review "EFS Quick Filing Guide – Registered Users."
