

How to Participate in Dockets

Iowa Utilities Commission

Comments and Objections

- Any member of the public may file a comment, objection, or letter of support in a docket.
- For the submitted information to be considered by the IUC, it must be in writing and filed in EFS.
 - The comment or objection may be filed using an online form, by email, or by mail.
- Filing a comment or objection does not make you a party in the docket.

Intervention

- Intervention is governed by Iowa Administrative Code 199—2506.13.
- Intervening in a docket makes an individual or a group a full party to a contested case.
- Intervention must be approved by the IUC.
